Lokmanya Bal Gangadhar Tilak Jayanti

Report

23 July 2022

The contribution of Lokmanya Bal Gangadhar Tilak, an ardent patriot, great freedom fighter, and father of extremists, in the Indian freedom struggle is written in golden letters. Tilak instilled patriotism in the masses by proclaiming, "Freedom is my birthright, and I will get it!" The programme was organised by the Department of Culture. The principal, Dr. Game, spoke on how Tilak started activities like Ganesh Utsav and Shiv Jayanti by bringing the youth together for social enlightenment and national protection, and how he saved the lives of people during an epidemic of plague in Pune and Maharashtra. Tilak did the work of social enlightenment by saving lives. Further, he added that Tilak's contribution will be worth remembering amidst the suffering from the Corona epidemic. "There is no doubt that Tilak's thoughts will be a guide for the youth generation," he told the students.

On the occasion of this programme, the student of class XI art, Ms. Rohit Ghotekar, presented his thoughts about Tilak on his own initiative. Speakers such as Prof. Vaibhav Sonawne and Prof. Vitthal Satpute shed light on Tilak's life work. The introduction and coordination of the programme were done by Prof. Ravindra Thakary, Head of the Cultural Department. Prof. Dhananjay Peherkar expressed vote of thanks.

The vice principal of the college, Prof. Shivaji Gaikwad, and the professors worked hard for the success of this programme. All senior and junior college professors, non-teaching staff, and students were present in large numbers on this occasion.

Report: General Tatya Tope Martyr's Day Greeting Program

Date: 18/04/2023

The Department of Social Sciences organized a felicitation program on the death anniversary of General Tatya Tope, commemorating his sacrifice and contributions to the Indian freedom struggle. The event took place at the College of Arts and Commerce in Yewla, where distinguished speakers and dignitaries gathered to pay homage to the revered revolutionary.

Prof. Ravindra Thakeray while addressing the audience highlighted the lifelong struggle of General Tatya Tope against the oppressive British rule. He emphasized that Tatya Tope played a crucial role in instilling intense patriotism among his fellow countrymen. Ravindra Thackeray, another prominent speaker at the event, echoed Professor Assorted's sentiments and expressed pride in Tatya Tope's sacrifices for the cause of freedom. Thackeray encouraged students to draw inspiration from Tatya Tope's ideologies and actively contribute to the betterment of their nation.

The program, presided over by Principal Dr. Bhausaheb Game, commenced with his presidential address. Dr. Game referred to the Indian freedom struggle as a raging fire pit, where numerous heroes selflessly sacrificed their lives. He praised Tatya Tope's courageous act of martyrdom, symbolized by the placement of basil leaves on his forehead, which exemplified his unwavering commitment to the freedom movement. Dr. Game emphasized the invaluable contribution of General Tatya Tope in introducing the spirit of sacrifice and bravery from Maharashtra to the rest of the country. He also acknowledged Yewla as a sacred land, historically associated with revolutionaries, and expressed confidence in the potential of the students to make a significant impact in society.

During the program, Commander Tatya Tope was felicitated by esteemed dignitaries, with Vice Principal Prof. Shivaji Gaikwad in attendance. The event's smooth coordination was ensured by Prof. Ram Prasad Vaval, who received special thanks for his efforts. The presence of a large number of faculty, non-faculty staff, and students added to the solemnity and significance of the occasion.

In conclusion, the General Tatya Tope Martyr's Day Greeting Program provided a platform to honor and remember the sacrifices made by General Tatya Tope in the Indian freedom struggle. The speeches delivered by eminent personalities and the encouragement given to students to follow in his footsteps served as a reminder of the importance of patriotism and nation-building. The event successfully paid tribute to General Tatya Tope's invaluable contribution to the cause of freedom and served as an inspiration to all in attendance.

Report: Celebration of Lokmanya Tilak's Birth Anniversary

*Date: July 23, 2018

The College of Arts and Commerce, affiliated with Mahatma Gandhi Vidya Mandir, commemorated the birth anniversary of the eminent freedom fighter, Lokmanya Bal Gangadhar Tilak, with great enthusiasm. The event paid tribute to the profound contributions of this visionary leader towards India's independence struggle.

Principal Dr. Bhausaheb Game led the celebrations by offering worship to the portrait of Lokmanya Tilak. The gesture symbolized reverence and appreciation for the invaluable role Tilak played in igniting the spirit of nationalism and inspiring millions of Indians to fight for their freedom.

The ceremony saw significant participation from the college community, with Vice Principal Mr. SD Gaikwad, Director of Sports Prof. Shirish Nandurdikar, and Dr. Dhanraj Dhangar gracing the occasion. The presence of Mr. Prahlad Jadhav and Mr. Somnath Kuwar, along with a large number of students, added to the vibrancy of the event.

Lokmanya Tilak's birth anniversary celebration not only served as a means of paying homage to a great leader but also provided an opportunity for the college community to reflect on his teachings and principles. The event aimed to instill the values of patriotism, dedication, and perseverance among the students, encouraging them to become responsible and active citizens of the country.

As the ceremony concluded, the college community departed with a sense of pride and gratitude for Lokmanya Tilak's enduring legacy, vowing to carry forward his ideals and work towards a prosperous and unified India. The celebration served as a reminder of the rich history and sacrifices made by the freedom fighters in shaping the nation's destiny.

Celebration of National Unity Day

On October 31, 2018, a special event was organized at Mahatma Gandhi Vidyamandir's Arts and Commerce College, Yeola, to commemorate National Unity Day in honor of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel's birth anniversary, and Sankalp Diwas, which marked the death anniversary of former Prime Minister Indira Gandhi. The program aimed to reflect on the significant contributions of these eminent leaders and instill a sense of national unity among the students.

The event commenced with Professor Arun Vanarse sharing insightful narratives about Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel's notable achievements and his own inspiring journey. Additionally, he emphasized how Indira Gandhi's sacrifice continues to be a guiding light for the nation.

Principal Dr. Bhausaheb Game delivered a powerful presidential address during the event. He spoke passionately about Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel's unwavering determination to integrate Hyderabad and Junagadh into India as integral parts of the nation, and his firm stance against the demand for an independent Khalistan. Dr. Bhausaheb emphasized that even in the face of adversities, Sardar Patel stood resolute to preserve the unity of India, pledging that his blood would not allow the nation to fragment. The principal stressed the importance of drawing inspiration from such great leaders to meet the challenges of national unity in the present times. He urged the students to always remember and uphold the values demonstrated by these remarkable personalities, so that no external force could ever divide the country. Dr. Bhausaheb Game called upon everyone to foster the feeling of "one nation, one heart" within themselves.

A significant part of the event was the administration of the oath of national unity to the students, signifying their commitment to upholding the principles of togetherness and integrity.

The success of the event was made possible by the dedicated efforts of various individuals. The Program Coordinator, Research Secretary Yo, Program Officer Professor Dr. Dhanraj Dhangar, and Student Welfare Officer Professor D. V. Sonawane played instrumental roles in organizing the event. The presence of Vice Principal S. D. Gaikwad and Special Guest Professor Jaymala Sode added to the occasion's significance.

Several individuals, including Dr. G. D. Kharat and Professor T. S. Sangle, as well as Shri Prahlad Jadhav, Somnath Kuwar, and Nandkumar Khairnar, worked tirelessly to ensure the event's success.

Accompanying photos from the event captured key moments, including the oath-taking ceremony led by Principal Dr. Bhausaheb Game, Vice Principal S. D. Gaikwad, Professor Arun Vanarse, Professor Jaymala Sode, and Dr. Dhanraj Dhangar, all actively participating in promoting the spirit of national unity.

The celebration of National Unity Day and Sankalp Diwas at Mahatma Gandhi Vidyamandir's Arts and Commerce College, Yeola, served as a poignant reminder of the sacrifices made by great leaders for the unity of the nation and inspired the students to carry forward their legacy of togetherness and strength.
