Amrit Mahotsav of Independence (India completing 75 years of Independence/Platinum Jubilee)

Mahatma Gandhi Vidyamandir's Arts and Commerce College, Yeola, inaugurated the Amrit Mahotsav of Independence on 13/08/2022 by hoisting the tricolour flag of India with the auspicious hand of Principal Dr. Bhausaheb Game. Dr. Game said to the students that we are going to hoist the flag for three consecutive days by implementing the rules of the Central and State Government, Savitribai Phule Pune University, Mahatma Gandhi Vidyamandir Institute and local administration. This flag hoisting is going to be our duty and awareness. We have hoisted the flag keeping in mind the duties of public cleanliness, plastic and garbage elimination, fight against corona epidemic, environment protection, protection of women and weaker sections, water logging and jirwa, tree plantation etc. While hoisting 'Har Ghar Tiranga Ghar Ghar Triranga', every student should be aware of their duty and patriotism and should be very careful not to disrespect the national flag, said Dr. Game on this occasion.

The program was started by hoisting the tricolour flag of India. After this, the tricolour flag of all the students and professors along with their photos were sent to the Website of Savitribai Phule Pune University. Prof. Ravindra Thackeray, Head of Cultural Department, introduced the program while Prof. Shirish Nandurdikar, Head of Sports Department, moderated the program. Vice Principal Shivajirao Gaikwad was guided to make the program successful. A large number of professors, administrative servants and student friends of all the senior and junior colleges were present on this occasion. Somnath Kuvar and Prahlad Jadhav took special efforts for the program.

The Celebration of Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav/the Platinum Anniversary of Independence

(2022-23)

On the occasion of India completing 75 years of independence, the college celebrated Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav by organising various programmes with the object of rekindling the memories associated with the freedom movement, flaming patriotic emotions among the citizens, and recounting the glorious history of the nation. On this occasion, the college organised various programmes at the behest of the state and central governments. The college launched the hash tag Indian National Flag initiative, encouraging students to hoist the Indian National Flag on their homes and upload photos of the event to the SP Pune University link.

The programme received a tremendous response from the students. It helped to rejuvenate the national spirit among them. Their enthusiastic participation contributed to increasing the sense of social and participatory responsibility. On this occasion, the students were also reminded of their fundamental duties as well as their responsibilities to themselves and the nation. They were encouraged to understand the importance of public cleanliness, garbage disposal, environment protection, protecting women and the weak, irrigation, and tree plantations. All these programmes contributed to inculcating social awareness and responsibility.
